13 December 2022

Nancy Pelosi, Speaker of the House

As Speaker of the House, it falls to you to maintain the integrity of Congress and the Constitution. When Rep. Marjorie Green voiced her opinion that had the Jan 6 riots been under her leadership, it would have succeeded in overthrowing the elected government, that is an unambiguous seditious statement. Not only do you have a duty to eject her from the House, but you also need to have her charged with sedition, treasonous activities, riotous acts, etc, and imprisoned - just like all traitors must be treated. The U.S. used to be the leader in democracy; now that falls to Germany where the attempted coup was appropriately handled and how the Peruvian congress exerted its authority over an attempted coup. If you fail in your duty, there are plenty of people who are fed up with these right-wing lunatics and may have to take the matter of the defense of our democracy much more aggressively and use tactics that quell any such threat.

Thank you, your message has been sent.

From: SpeakerNP@mail.house.gov,
To: briansmithdc@aol.com,
Subject: Office of Speaker Nancy Pelosi
Date: Tue, Dec 13, 2022 10:03 am

Dear Brian,

Thank you for contacting me to express your thoughts on this important issue. While your comments are deeply appreciated, I also encourage you, if you have not already, to contact your Member of Congress. You can find your Member of Congress by visiting House.gov and entering your zip code, or by calling (202) 224-3121. The ability to engage with your Congressional representative is an essential part of our democracy.

Guided by the values and priorities of the American people, House Democrats are advancing a bold, forward-looking agenda For The People . Working with the Biden-Harris Administration and the new Democratic Majority in the Senate, we will act decisively to ensure that our nation will not only recover from the coronavirus and economic crises, but will Build Back Better in a way that will advance justice and equality for all Americans. That is why we are proud to support action to crush the coronavirus, deliver urgent economic relief, combat the climate crisis, honor our nation's diverse heritage, and advance racial equity.

Thank you, again, for contacting me. For more information on our For The People agenda or other issues affecting our nation, please visit my website at www.speaker.gov .

best regards,

NANCY PELOSI
Speaker of the House

image